Friday, May 15, 6 – 9 PM – At the Herlong Mansion in Micanopy there will be a special awards reception to honor rural practitioners. Delicious food and drink, a silent auction, music and carriage rides will be part of this festive occasion. Cost per ticket: $45.00.

Sponsorships for the week-end are also being sought. (Details below*.)

Saturday, May 16 – This day's exciting entertainment and educational activities will recall and celebrate the theme of the movie Doc Hollywood. The film, starring Michael J. Fox, was shot in Micanopy in 1991!

Events begin at 11:00 am with a re-creation of the movie's "Squash Festival Parade" along Micanopy's main street, Cholokka Boulevard. There will be a barbecue cook-off, quilt raffle, classic car and bike show, musical entertainment, street dance, an opportunity to get your picture taken with a famous pig, and more!

In keeping with the spirit and theme of the weekend, there will be a health fair (with opportunities for health screenings and information, bloodmobile, massage and much more), as well as informational booths hosted by rural and environmental organizations.

A kid's zone will offer fun-filled activities to entertain children.

* We invite individuals and businesses to help sponsor Micanopy Doc Hollywood Days. Sponsors will receive recognition in the program, and in other ways throughout the week-end.

- $ 250 (includes 2 tickets to reception, name in program)
